

AAA. Use it for all it's worth.®

The Mid-Atlantic Foundation for Safety and Education is a non-profit organization funded by members of AAA Mid-Atlantic.

Thank You!

Sponsors, as you head into the final stretch of the school year, we would like to thank you for your time and effort in implementing a successful AAA School Safety Patrol program. Your support allows AAA to have a strong, flourishing AAA School Safety Patrol program. We thank you!

The Patroller is Going "Green"

In an effort to save paper and reduce costs, the Foundation will be posting all future editions of The Patroller online at <http://AAA.com/Foundation> (link to School Safety Patrol). Beginning with the September edition, your school will be notified via postcard that the newsletter is online and ready to be downloaded or viewed. There will be two editions of The Patroller each year. Look for new editions in February and September.

Coming Soon!

Due to numerous inquiries, the Mid-Atlantic Foundation for Safety and Education is in the process of designing a AAA School Safety Patrol t-shirt for patrols to purchase. Watch for more details in September!

We Need Your Help!

Do you have an Outstanding AAA School Safety Patrol? On May 12, 2009, AAA Mid-Atlantic and the Mid-Atlantic Foundation for Safety and Education will host the annual Outstanding AAA

School Safety Patrol Awards Luncheon. This event is held to honor the achievements of individual AAA School Safety Patrols and is based on the qualities of leadership, dependability, academic efforts, promptness, and neatness. With this in mind, we are asking that you begin to think of a patrol you may wish to have considered for this award.

Application forms will be distributed in early March; contact your police coordinator for information. If you do not have a police coordinator, e-mail Jim Slocum at jslocum@aaamidatlantic.com.

Have a question regarding the AAA School Safety Patrol Program? Visit AAA.com/foundation.

Visit the Mid-Atlantic Foundation for Safety and Education website, and view the expanded AAA School Safety Patrol webpage, which contains valuable information for sponsors, parents, and patrols. Our hope is to provide updated information, helpful tips, guidelines, and special events for the AAA School Safety Patrols.

Patrol Training

Now is the time to recruit new AAA School Safety Patrols. When possible, train new patrol members for the upcoming school year before the end of this school year.

Refresher training for both new and veteran members should be provided before the new school year begins. Jim Slocum, Safety Services Manager, is available to speak at area schools and to patrol groups regarding traffic safety issues and patrol training. Please contact Jim at (570) 819-1920 or via e-mail at jslocum@aaamidatlantic.com.

AAA School Safety Patrol Training Corner

Part of the pledge school patrols take is a promise to "report dangerous student practices." Just what are those practices? A dangerous practice endangers students. When a patrol member observes a dangerous practice, he or she should:

- ◆ Politely explain the risk to the offender (if it is another student).
- ◆ Seek assistance from an adult, if the behavior continues.
- ◆ Never touch another student unless it is an emergency situation.
- ◆ Report dangerous situations to a patrol officer or the patrol sponsor for follow-up.

If another patrol member is involved in a dangerous practice, this should be reported to the Patrol Supervisor. Individual school system guidelines should be in place to handle such disciplinary actions, including probation, suspension, and dismissal.

A LEADER IN TRAFFIC SAFETY

Look, Act, and Be Alert!

A good AAA School Safety Patrol is always on the job. Patrols should strive to set a good example, making their school and classmates proud of the way they appear and behave while on post.

- ◆ Look, act, and be alert.
- ◆ Report to duty on time.
- ◆ Be neat and clean while on duty.
- ◆ Wear your belt and badge proudly.

AAA School Safety Patrol Sponsor Survey

A survey was recently sent to several area schools in the AAA Mid-Atlantic service area. The following are suggestions/ ideas from patrol sponsors:

- ◆ Have police officers come to patrol meetings and interact with patrols.
- ◆ Make membership a revered position.
- ◆ Provide an “end of the year” picnic.
- ◆ Check posts regularly.
- ◆ Have a school bus brought in for patrol training.
- ◆ Select a Patrol of the Month.
- ◆ Provide small treats—hot cocoa, Halloween candy, etc.
- ◆ Frequently change patrol responsibilities.
- ◆ Create a monthly bulletin board highlighting different safety concerns within the school. In addition, display patrol photos and recognition.
- ◆ Have safety patrols provide lessons on traffic safety to children in lower grades at the school.
- ◆ Ride the bus with students to reinforce rules and model for patrols.
- ◆ Insist that belts be worn properly. See <http://AAA.com/Foundation> (link to School Safety Patrol).
- ◆ Participation should be based on schoolwork completion.

Be a Good Leader

Every patrol member should set a good example by knowing and practicing safe walking behaviors. Your classmates may have to cross at places where there are no safety patrols to protect them. It is important that you teach others how to safely cross the street. The purpose of your patrol is to help teach safety behavior and protect your classmates.

Tell your classmates about these six crossing rules:

1. Stop at the curb or street edge.
2. Look all ways before crossing.
3. Watch for long, safe gaps in traffic.
4. Look out for turning vehicles.
5. Walk, never run, across the street.
6. Cross at corners.

A LEADER IN TRAFFIC SAFETY

Patrol Member's Pledge

I promise to do my best to . . .

- ◆ Report for duty on time.
- ◆ Perform my duties faithfully.
- ◆ Strive to prevent traffic crashes, always setting a good example myself.
- ◆ Obey my teachers and officers of the Patrol.
- ◆ Report dangerous student practices.
- ◆ Strive to earn the respect of fellow students.
